

BORDER CONTROL OPERATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE (BCOCC)

The Border Control Operational Coordinating Committee is an affiliated structure of the Justice, Crime Prevention and Security Cluster and was mandated in 2005 to strategically manage the South African border environment in a coordinated manner.

The following Government institutions are involved in the Border Control and Security Framework: the National Departments of Home Affairs, Intelligence, Transport, Public Works, Agriculture, Health and Defence as well as the South African Police Service (SAPS) and the South African Revenue Service (SARS).

This website aims to provide important information, and up to date information about our Ports of Entry before to travellers before they embark on a journey to a neighbouring country or into South Africa. It is aimed at providing travellers with up to date information.
